

Iteration per feature length (l)

Determine l search (upper) bound:

A smallest l where any distances between taxa—assume share a common ancestor--reached maximum

Determine tree stability:

Find a “nadir” point within search bound where tree topologies at l and $l+1$ begin to converge

